

HDM-ACVS

Active Cable Voltage Stabilizer

The Ethereal Active Cable Voltage Stabilizer has been designed and built right here in Florida to supply all of the correct voltage and current that you will need to keep sources and active cables happy and functioning. This device is installed at the display side using a short HDMI cable as a jumper to the display.

Data Throughput of 18Gbps
Supports HDCP 2.2
Small Size

Mounting placement is typically at the display input.

